CBRE is the world's leading real estate services company—a growing and visionary organization, comprised of the best and brightest professionals.

Since its founding in 1906, CBRE has grown through mergers and acquisitions, as well as organically, in order to form a truly global firm that services the Americas, Europe, and Asia Pacific across a multitude of service lines. CBRE provides real estate outsourcing services through our Global Corporate Services (GCS) organization. GCS helps clients reduce capital and occupancy expenses and also uncover value creation opportunities within their portfolios – this helps our clients improve bottom-line performance and workplace quality. We provide these services to more than 300 corporate, healthcare, and government organizations.
